FAQs

What is $CHI?

$CHI is inspired by the adorable kitten Chi from Chi's Sweet Home, a symbol of love, playfulness, and curiosity. Just like Chi's adventures that bring joy to everyone she meets, $CHI is here to bring happiness, community, and excitement to the blockchain world. No grand claims, just endless fun and a shared love for all things Chi. Let's create memories together—meow by meow!

When can I claim my tokens?

Once the presale ends, our website will be updated, and you'll be able to click on the "Claim Token" button to receive your $CHI. It's as easy as a tap on the paw! Just refresh the page after the presale concludes, and your tokens will be ready to claim.

Where will $CHI be listed?

After the presale ends, $CHI will first be listed on Uniswap and PancakeSwap. But don't worry, Chi has big plans! We're working on getting listed on Binance and other major exchanges soon. Stay tuned for more exciting news as Chi spreads her paws across the globe!

Is the project audited?

Yes, $CHI is fully secure! We've had a thorough audit by top security firms, including Solid Proof, to ensure everything is in tip-top shape. Your $CHI is safe in our paws! You can find the audit file on our website for full transparency.

When does the $CHI presale end?

The presale will officially end in 30 days. Be quick—$Chi can't wait to meet more friends! Once the presale ends, you'll be able to claim your tokens directly on the website.
